

THE NEWS FROM VIRGINIA CONTINUED FROM PAGE TEN.

ROANOKE

The New Line From Radford to Bell Springs.

Death of Colonel John Fulk, Formerly of Bedford—Foundry Destroyed by Fire—New Rector Arrives—Becomes a Methodist.

Roanoke, Va., March 11.—Mayor Samuel Walton, of West Virginia, has been awarded the contract by the Norfolk and Western Railway Company for building the seven-mile cut-off between Radford and Bell Springs. About four hundred men will be worked on the contract until finished, and work is expected to begin within ten days. Mr. Walton is largely interested in the American Bridge and Iron Company, of this city.

IRON FOUNDRY BURNED.
Golins & Shanks' iron foundry was burned down at an early hour yesterday morning, entailing a heavy loss on the owners. The building and stock was a total loss and is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.
The second day's session of the Washington Annual Conference was presided over by Bishop Goodsell and passed off harmoniously. The various reports of the presiding officers of the conference were the features of the day. Nearly all showed the districts of the conference to be in a thriving condition.

It was decided to hold the next annual conference at Asbury Methodist Church, Washington, D. C., on May 1. Alfred W. Brown, W. R. Fox and A. Title were granted superannuation relations.

COLONEL JOHN FULKS DEAD

Bedford Democrat: Col. John Fulk, a gallant old Confederate soldier, died at his home in Bedford, Va., on Monday morning last, after an illness of about a year with Bright's disease. Colonel Fulk was about 63 years of age and was a native of Bedford county, but for a number of years past has made his home in West Virginia. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, serving under Generals Stuart, Fitzhugh Lee, Rosser and others. For a number of years deceased had been quite prominent in Masonic circles and at the time of his death was treasurer of the lodge to which he belonged. A wife and six children survive him. Colonel Fulk was a brother of Mrs. J. A. Marshall, of Thaxton, Bedford county, and has many relatives and friends who will be grieved to learn of his death.

THE NEW RECTOR ARRIVES.

Rev. Mr. Milton, the new pastor of the St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Baltimore with his wife and child. They are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hillary, No. 25 Eighth avenue, southwest. The new rector will fill the pulpit at St. John's Church on Sunday.

BECOMES A METHODIST.

Rev. David R. Chockley has abandoned the New Earth Church and has become a member of St. James Methodist Church. Mr. Chockley is a brilliant young man, and his many friends wish him well in the church that has the "good, old time religion."

LYNCHBURG.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE DODGES CONNECTION—BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS.

Lynchburg, Va., March 11.—The line of the American Long Distance Telephone Company has been constructed to a point beyond the road leading from Lynchburg to Campbell Courthouse. It passes within about four miles of Lynchburg, having left the Norfolk and Western road about eight miles east of the city. It will not strike the Southern railroad until it reaches Lynchburg, twelve miles south of Lynchburg. It thence forms the hypotenuse of a right angle triangle, the sides of which are the Norfolk and Western and the Southern railroads. As yet Lynchburg and the company have not agreed upon the terms of a contract, but this has delayed the work of construction, and from past indications as to this city the line will be far down in the South. Lynchburg officials are determined to adhere to their demands, while the officials of the telephone company seem inclined to "saw wood and say nothing."

PETITIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.

Petitions in bankruptcy have been received in the clerk's office of the U. S. District Court from the following citizens of Roanoke:
From Millard McLaughlin, with liabilities of $9,296.58, and creditors, Roanoke, Staunton, Clifton Forge, Hollins, Low Moor and Amsterdam, Va.;
Lawrence R. Roneverie, Huntington and Alderson, W. Va.; also in Baltimore and Providence. Exemptions, $80.35 in household goods, books, etc.
From Mrs. Laura O. McLaughlin, with liabilities of $1,831.10, and creditors in Washington, Roneverie, Clifton Forge and Staunton.
From William H. McCall, with liabilities of $148.17, and creditors in Roanoke, Clifton Forge and Harrisonburg.

SPRING STIMULANTS.

The doctor at this season usually advises patients to "pick up the system," and a good prescription is the following: A fresh egg, some pure milk, a little sugar and a good Rye or Bourbon Whiskey, two or three times a day, and the gain is apparent at once, but whatever you do of the goods fresh and pure. You wouldn't think of using a bad egg, and of course, you wouldn't use sour milk, but a great many people are apt to use cheap Whiskies—not a sly cheap in price, but deuced—that is sweetened and full of chemicals. Get the Pure Rye and Bourbon, bottled by Chester H. Graves & Sons, Boston, Mass., and there is no guess work about it. You, and then that you have absolutely the best and purest whiskey made. You can get this at the MONTICELLO HOTEL, and every Virginian knows what the MONTICELLO HOTEL is. If you give us just what you ask for, and if you ask for G. O. TAYLOR Whiskies, we give you the best.

Trade Sale of Furniture and Carpets.

The announcement of the continued Great Trade Sale of Furniture and Carpets at D. Carpenter's, will send a thrill of expectation throughout Norfolk and vicinity. Male and female hearts will beat a pulse quicker for the event is not any more an unknown quantity, and people will know without our telling just what it means and what to expect. D. Carpenter is pledged unalterably to furnish to his patrons the lowest price.

The Great Trade Sale at D. Carpenter's has for its purpose to still further, and in a more emphatic way, impress upon the mind of the public that the store is able to cope with the ever-changing, combines or associations of all sorts have not effected and will never succeed in influencing the basis upon which his business is being conducted. Read his advertisement; go to his store, stroll through and you'll be repaid your own expectation. D. Carpenter never disappoints.

Mr. Bishop's Body Found.

Mineral City, Va., March 11.—After a long and weary search since Monday last, the body of Mr. W. B. Bishop was found to-day about three hundred yards from the station. All circumstances point to the fact that he was returning from his usual morning walk to dinner, at which time he was taken with an apoplectic stroke, falling face downward a few steps from a well known path.

That he had fallen in the same position party covered with snow, not having been disturbed. It will be remembered that this was the second apoplectic stroke, the first one being about two years ago, from which he had partially recovered.

Mrs. Sarah J. Butler, who resides near Tanno, sold her farm Friday, containing 100 acres, for $1,200 cash. Theodore Graef, of Ohio. The new purchaser will take charge as soon as he can make his arrangements to move down.

In the Circuit Court of Frederick county a decree was entered changing the name of the Union Steam Fire Company No. 2, of Winchester, to the Charley Roush Fire Company.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of this State has decided that State hospitals can be sued like other corporations.

The report that the Old Dominion Paper Mills, near Winchester, would shut down indefinitely is without foundation. Mr. Carpenter, of Norwich, Conn.,
